Exploratory Humanities, Fine Arts and Design

ASHUFANEXPL

In this program, you have the academic opportunity to explore a variety of majors related to humanities, fine arts and design professions.

Program Description

Many students are not ready to choose a specific academic program of study when first entering the university. Exploratory programs provide students an opportunity to discover the options available at ASU, and they are provided the time, resources and guidance needed to assess their skills, interests and aptitudes.

Declaring exploratory status permits students to begin meeting General Studies requirements that all ASU graduates must fulfill. The exploratory humanities, fine arts and design program allows students to take some time to explore a variety of academic courses that may lead to a potential major interest in these fields.

Working with their academic advisors, students can create their own concurrent degree combination. Some combinations are not possible due to high levels of overlap in curriculum.

Transfer Options

ASU is committed to helping students thrive by offering tools that allow personalization of the transfer path to ASU. Students may use MyPath2ASU® to outline a list of recommended courses to take prior to transfer.

ASU has transfer partnerships in Arizona and across the country to create a simplified transfer experience for students. These pathway programs include exclusive benefits, tools and resources, and they help students save time and money in their college journey.

Global Opportunities

Global Experience
Exploring humanities, fine arts and design on the global scale can be beneficial to students when narrowing their focus of study. While taking various general education courses through study abroad, students are able learn more about themselves and what career path they want to pursue.

Students earn ASU credit for completed courses while staying on track for graduation, and they may apply financial aid and scholarships toward program costs. More information is available on the Global Education website.
