

Logistics (Maritime), AS

BALGMARAS

Program description

The AS program in logistics with a concentration in maritime applications uses interdisciplinary methods to prepare students to become maritime logistics professionals across all sectors: private, nonprofit, government and military. Designed for a partnership with the U.S. Naval Community College, the program provides training to enlisted personnel (Navy, Marines and Coast Guard).

Students in this program examine the theories, concepts and components of logistics, with particular attention to serving and supporting maritime and military logistics operations. Students also gain an understanding of logistics and supply chain management, and they develop the communication, financial management and accounting, analytics and managerial skills necessary to be successful in maritime and military logistics, as well as in private industry.
