

Fashion Styling, AA

HIFSHAA

Do you constantly think of creative and expressive ways to dress yourself and others? You may be interested in a dynamic career in styling. With this degree from ASU FIDM, you can learn about the industry and develop the skills you need to turn your passion for fashion into a meaningful career.

Program description

The AA program in fashion styling is a distinctly professional, hands-on degree program that prepares students for an exciting career in fashion styling. Students learn key skills sought across the fashion industry such as flat and digital patternmaking and development, technical design, garment construction, merchandising, supply chain management, retail management and branding.

Studio and lecture courses guide students in developing a strong foundation of industry acumen, design aesthetics, and garment construction and creative styling skills valuable for all career paths in the industry. All courses are embedded within the principles of sustainability so students can develop into the next generation of environmentally conscious industry leaders.
