Political Science, BS

Interested in politics and public issues in the United States and abroad? Do you see yourself heading to law school or working in political campaigns or as a diplomat? This degree is an excellent springboard for a wide variety of careers, both inside and outside of government.

Program Description

The BS program in political science is useful for students who are looking for careers that require analytical thinking and quantitative skills.

Students study how citizens interact with their governments and how governments at all levels formulate policies to serve, or not serve, their citizens. Students can apply what they learn as they explore innovative approaches to today's emerging local, national and global challenges, such as those seen in domestic elections and lobbying and the international issues of terrorism, diplomacy and empowerment.

The program offers a variety of courses and opportunities to study politics and public policy at the local, national and global levels. By providing experience with the analysis of political statistics, this degree program acquaints students with quantitative application skills.

In addition to the guidelines in the Concurrent Program Options section below, students interested in pursuing concurrent or second baccalaureate degrees in The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences are advised to visit the college's website for more information and requirements.

Concurrent Program Options

Students pursuing concurrent degrees (also known as a "double major") earn two distinct degrees and receive two diplomas. Working with their academic advisors, students can create their own concurrent degree combination. Some combinations are not possible due to high levels of overlap in curriculum.

Accelerated Program Options

This program allows students to obtain both a bachelor's and master's degree in as little as five years. It is offered as an accelerated bachelor's plus master's degree with:

- Global Security (Cybersecurity), MA
- Global Security, MA
- Political Psychology, MA
- Political Science, MA
- Public Administration, MPA
- Public Policy, MPP

Acceptance to the graduate program requires a separate application. Students typically receive approval to pursue the accelerated master's during the junior year of their bachelor's degree program. Interested students can learn about eligibility requirements and how to apply.
