Organizational Leadership (Project Management), BA

LSORGLPMBA

Become a leader and skilled project manager. Leadership and project management are vital skills in today's job market. Employers from many fields and the public, private and nonprofit sectors seek to hire and promote those who can lead organizations and manage complex projects.

Program Description

The BA program in organizational leadership with a concentration in project management offers theoretically and skills-driven curriculum to prepare students to be excellent project managers and project management leaders.

Students learn to integrate leadership theory and practice in organizational leadership courses. They learn the skills and knowledge that leaders need to lead diverse teams, innovate, solve problems, communicate effectively, assess leadership and organizational effectiveness, manage resources and use emerging technologies in organizations. Students also acquire the skills necessary to manage complex projects: project leadership, project quality management, project risk management, project schedule management, project cost management and project resource management.

Global Opportunities

Global Experience
The organizational leadership program uses transdisciplinary methods that prepare students to become world-class leaders in the contemporary and fast-paced global workplace. Through study abroad experiences, students develop the skills and knowledge that leaders need to solve problems, communicate effectively, manage complex projects and resources, and use emerging technologies in their organizations. Students can find more information on available programs on the Global Education website at https://goglobal.asu.edu/.

Career Opportunities

Graduates are prepared for a range of positions in the public and private sectors, including government, information technology, nonprofit agencies, businesses of many kinds and in the service industry. Graduates are prepared for jobs as technical project managers, project managers versed in the Agile methodology and others, senior project managers, portfolio or project managers or directors of project management. In addition, students may seek advanced study in the form of the Project Management Professional credential, graduate and postbaccalaureate degrees.
According to the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, project manager salaries range anywhere from $74,000 to $100,000. The bureau also indicates that the average project manager receives a little more than $42 per hour in wages.

Career examples include but are not limited to those shown in the following list. Advanced degrees or certifications may be required for academic or clinical positions.
