Organizational Leadership (Veterans, Society and Service), BA

Hone your leadership skills and impact the lives of veterans and their families. Both private and public sectors seek to hire those who can lead organizations and demonstrate relational, cultural and institutional perspectives to better serve veterans and their families in the community while bridging the civilian and military gap.

Program Description

The BA program in organizational leadership with a concentration in veterans, society and service offers a skill-driven curriculum to prepare students to be excellent leaders and better serve veterans and those who serve the veteran community. Students learn to integrate leadership theory and practice in organizational leadership courses. They learn the skills and knowledge that leaders need to lead diverse teams, innovate, solve problems, communicate effectively, assess leadership and organizational effectiveness, manage resources, and use emerging technologies in organizations. Students also acquire the skills necessary to engage with veteran and military communities: being sensitive to others, counseling, facilitating group discussion, identifying appropriate resources, and providing support to others.

Concurrent Program Options

Students pursuing concurrent degrees (also known as a "double major") earn two distinct degrees and receive two diplomas. Working with their academic advisors, students can create their own concurrent degree combination. Some combinations are not possible due to high levels of overlap in curriculum.

Tuition Information

When it comes to paying for college, everyone's situation is different. Students can learn about ASU tuition and financial aid options to find out which will work best for them.

Change of Major Requirements

A current ASU student has no additional requirements for changing majors.

Students should visit the Change of Major form for information about how to change a major to this program.

Transfer Options

ASU is committed to helping students thrive by offering tools that allow personalization of the transfer path to ASU. Students may use MyPath2ASU® to outline a list of recommended courses to take prior to transfer.

ASU has transfer partnerships in Arizona and across the country to create a simplified transfer experience for students. These pathway programs include exclusive benefits, tools and resources, and they help students save time and money in their college journey.

Global Opportunities

Global Experience
The organizational leadership program uses transdisciplinary methods that prepare students to become world-class leaders in the contemporary and fast-paced global workplace. Through study abroad experiences, students develop the skills and knowledge that leaders need to solve problems, communicate effectively, assess programs, manage resources and use emerging technologies in their organizations.

The College of Integrative Sciences and Arts recommends these programs for students majoring in organizational leadership.

Career Opportunities

Graduates possess skills and knowledge needed for organizational leadership and veteran service positions in a wide range of organizations, such as business, government, nonprofit agencies and the service industry.

In addition to the examples listed below, career examples also include community health workers; social and community service managers; managers in veteran disaster preparedness and recovery organizations; and national, state and municipal leaders.

Career example titles and salaries listed below are not necessarily entry level, and students should take into consideration how years of experience, geographical location, and required advanced degrees or certifications may affect pay scales.
