- All students are required to take one course from HST 303, HST 304 and HST 306. Students may select any topic within these course numbers for this requirement. However, for the Comparative History requirement, students must choose only from the specific topics shown in the Comparative History list below. All topics under HST 302 fulfill the Comparative History requirement. Students must complete 33 total credit hours in history (HST), so any variable topics course taken for Comparative History will be in addition to the standard requirement for HST 303, HST 304 and HST 306.
- Students must complete 12 credits of Related Area courses, at least six of which must be upper division.

Notes:

- First-Year Composition: All students are placed in ENG 101 unless submission of SAT, ACT, Accuplacer, IELTS, or TOEFL score, or college-level transfer credit or test credit equivalent to ASU's first-year composition course(s), determine otherwise. Students on Polytechnic, Downtown Phoenix and West Campuses are encouraged to complete the Directed Self-Placement survey to choose the first-year composition option they believe best suits their needs. Visit: https://cisa.asu.edu/DSP
- Mathematics Placement Assessment score determines placement in first mathematics course.

Please keep in mind that the applicability of a specific transfer course toward an ASU degree program depends on the requirements of the department, division, college or school in which you are enrolled at ASU. Transfer agreements that guarantee the completion of university level requirements do not necessarily meet college and major requirements. Please consult with an advisor for more information.

At least 12 upper-division hours in the major (HST) must be in courses offered by The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences.
