- Students complete 15 credit hours in the Religion, Culture and Public Life concentration, at least nine of which must be upper-division.
- Students complete six credit hours in Outside Concentration REL courses, at least three of which must be upper-division. Outside Concentration courses include all REL courses that are not part of the Religion, Culture and Public Life concentration. Due to their broad content, REL 100 and REL 321 appear in both the Religion, Culture and Public Life and the Outside Concentration course lists. Students may use these courses to satisfy a concentration requirement OR an Outside Concentration requirement, but each course will apply toward only ONE requirement, not both.
- Students complete 15 credits of courses in related areas, at least nine of which must be upper-division.
- At least 12 upper-division hours in the major (REL) must be in courses offered by The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences.

Notes:

- First-Year Composition: All students are placed in ENG 101 unless submission of SAT, ACT, Accuplacer, IELTS, or TOEFL score, or college-level transfer credit or test credit equivalent to ASU's first-year composition course(s), determine otherwise. Students on Polytechnic, Downtown Phoenix and West Campuses are encouraged to complete the Directed Self-Placement survey to choose the first-year composition option they believe best suits their needs. Visit: <https://cisa.asu.edu/DSP>
- Mathematics Placement Assessment score determines placement in first mathematics course.

Please keep in mind that the applicability of a specific transfer course toward an ASU degree program depends on the requirements of the department, division, college or school in which you are enrolled at ASU. Transfer agreements that guarantee the completion of university level requirements do not necessarily meet college and major requirements. Please consult with an advisor for more information.
