- The online RN to BSN program includes options for pathway, non-pathway, and the Concurrent Enrollment Program (CEP). The prerequisites for each option vary and the number of courses needed to graduate from ASU with a BSN may vary. Students must see an RN to BSN academic advisor for more information about the prerequisites and the graduation requirements.

State Authorization Disclosure

As a participating National Council for State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements (NC-SARA) member, Arizona State University is authorized to offer distance education to persons located in individual SARA states in accordance with the Council's established policies and standards. California does not participate in SARA and the California Bureau of Private Postsecondary Education does not regulate out-of-state public institutions. ASU may offer educational activities in California. There are some exceptions for specific programs at Edson College. These exceptions are noted on the ASU State Authorizations website.

Due to legislative regulations, Edson College of Nursing and Health Innovation cannot enroll students located in Tennessee, Rhode Island, and Washington for the online BSN nursing program. Clinical rotation, field experience, internship, or practicum components of either online and/or ground courses are not currently available to Edson College students in this state.
