

Real Estate (Graduate Certificate)

BAREAGRCT

Gain an understanding of real estate, real estate valuation, and the relationship between business and community development.

Program description

Degree awarded: Certificate Real Estate (Certificate)

The real estate graduate certificate program encompasses foundational courses in real estate education, including valuation, investment, finance, law and development. The curriculum includes a culminating experience that partners classroom knowledge with experiential learning to further develop the requisite skills students need to succeed as real estate professionals in the built environment.

The program is intended to supplement students' major area of study and provide the understanding necessary for critical thinking and application within the field of real estate. The certificate does not apply to any outside licensing programs.
