

Curriculum and Instruction (Teaching and Learning), MEd

- INACTIVE

EDDCIMED

ASU is no longer accepting new students to this program. Students interested in master's degree programs that do not lead to teacher certification might consider the following programs: Education, MA; Global Education, MEd; Learning Design and Technologies, MEd; Learning Sciences, MA.

Program description

Degree awarded: MEd Curriculum and Instruction (Teaching and Learning)

The MEd program in curriculum and instruction with a concentration in teaching and learning facilitates the development of advanced-level professional knowledge, skills and understanding through research and applied experiences. The program provides an avenue for developing skills in designing learning environments for students.

At a glance

- College/school: Mary Lou Fulton College for Teaching & Learning In
- Location: Online
- STEM-OPT extension eligible: No

Degree requirements

30 credit hours including the required applied project course (SPE 593), or
30 credit hours including the required capstone course (SPE 597)

Students complete 30 credit hours in their focus area and a culminating project to be embedded within a course.

Admission requirements

Applicants must fulfill the requirements of both the Graduate College and the Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College.

Applicants are eligible to apply to the program if they have earned a bachelor's or master's degree in any field from a regionally accredited institution.

Applicants must have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.00 (scale is 4.00 = "A") in the last 60 hours of their first bachelor's degree program, or they must have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.00 (scale is 4.00 = "A") in an applicable master's degree program.

All applicants must submit:

1. graduate admission application and application fee
2. official transcripts
3. three letters of recommendation
4. personal statement
5. resume
6. proof of English proficiency

Additional Application Information

An applicant whose native language is not English must provide proof of English proficiency regardless of their current residency.

The letters of recommendation should be from individuals who can speak to the applicant's potential for success in a graduate program.

The personal statement should describe the applicant's interests and reason for seeking this degree.

GRE scores are not required for admission.

Tuition information

When it comes to paying for higher education, everyone's situation is different. Students can learn about ASU tuition and financial aid options to find out which will work best for them.

Contact information

Division for Advancing Education Policy, Practice | ED 118

GraduateEducation@asu.edu

480-965-5555