Policy Advocacy, MA

PPPLADVMA

ASU is not currently accepting applications for this program.

You can directly impact change in the world once you've become adept at creating and analyzing public policy. With your abilities, the right skills and an understanding of how the political and legal worlds operate, you can be a change agent.

Program Description

Degree Awarded: MA Policy Advocacy
Expertise and knowledge are required to navigate increasingly complex legal, communication, political and policy landscapes and to effectively create societal change. This has prompted various groups to use professionals to champion concerns and influence opinions, laws and policies that are local and international.

This MA in policy advocacy is an applied degree program oriented to those interested in acquiring the necessary skills to become effective agents of policy change, and it directly addresses elements of the ASU charter by creating opportunities to increase the professionalism of individuals who can represent these concerns at all levels.

Ethical, skilled policy advocacy professionals are in demand to represent all sections of society including nonprofit, private and public sectors.
