Elementary Education

No matter where you're located, you can earn your top-ranked master's degree in as few as three semesters.

Program Description

Degree Awarded: MEd Elementary Education
The MEd program in elementary education prepares students to start a career teaching grades K-8. It is designed for individuals who do not need to obtain teacher certification. The program builds on connections between educational design and decision-making and is designed to foster strong professional growth and leadership development.

All courses are offered remotely, and students select one of two modalities:

- ASU Sync offers regularly scheduled evening classes via synchronous learning over Zoom. Instructors and students are not in the same physical space but do meet at the same time, offering a live learning experience with peers and faculty. Students completing the program through ASU Sync must be admitted to the ASU Tempe campus even though classes do not meet on campus. ASU Sync students need to reside in Arizona throughout the duration of the program.
- ASU Online offers classes via asynchronous instruction. Instructors and students are not in the same physical space and do not meet at the same time, allowing students to complete coursework on their own schedules. Students completing their program through ASU Online must be admitted to the online campus.

This program can be taken in three continuous semesters, allowing students to complete the program in one year. Students can also enroll part-time over additional semesters.

Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College faculty actively engage in the educational research community, bringing new and relevant knowledge into the program. Students engage in their own research through applied project coursework, deepening their knowledge and improving their practice through research, critical evaluation and application of education concepts. The program culminates in an action research project in which students apply what they've learned to address a challenge in education.
The master's degree program does not lead to teacher certification. Students interested in certification should enroll in the Master of Education program in elementary education with a concentration in teacher certification or in the teacher certification graduate certificate program.

ASU Sync
Students on I-20 visas are not permitted to complete courses via Sync and should speak with an advisor about other options to complete this program.

Students seeking to use GI Bill® benefits for ASU Sync programs should contact the Pat Tillman Veterans Center regarding certain limitations.

Attend Online

ASU Online

ASU offers this program in an online format with multiple enrollment sessions throughout the year. Applicants may view the program description and request more information here.

Career Opportunities

Graduates are prepared to start or advance in educational careers working with children in grades K-8 in roles that do not require certification. Students gain skills in instruction, assessment, educational research and collaborating in teams --- all of which prepares them to work successfully in schools and other community-serving organizations. Roles may include noncertified educators in charter or private schools or educators in non-school settings

This program may also be suitable for certified teachers who do not have an undergraduate or graduate degree in education.
