Music Theatre, Minor

HIMUTHRMIN

Follow your passion for music theatre with this minor, dedicated to training you in singing, acting and dancing while you major in an associated or contrasting area of study.

Description

The minor program in music theatre allows students with a background, interest or passion in music theatre to continue their studies and further explore the craft.

Students develop skills through performance-based small-group classes and private instruction, and coursework also includes the study of theoretical and historical elements of music and theatre.

Enrollment requirements

GPA Requirement: None

Incompatible Majors: BMus in performance with a concentration in music theatre

Other Enrollment Requirements: An audition for music theatre is required for entrance into the minor or BIS concentration and MUP 121 and MUP 170 study. Audition criteria are determined by area faculty.

Audition repertoires can be found on this School of Music, Dance and Theatre website. Students interested in pursuing the music theatre minor should submit an application at the program page.

Advisors should not add the minor until the student presents an acceptance letter from the School of Music, Dance and Theatre academic affairs office confirming that the student has successfully passed the audition.

Current ASU undergraduate students may pursue a minor and have it recognized on their ASU transcript at graduation. Minor requirements appear on the degree audit once the minor is added. Certain major and minor combinations may be deemed inappropriate by the college or department of either the major or the minor program. Courses taken for the minor may not count toward both the major and minor.

Career opportunities

Minor programs allow students to develop additional competencies that complement the marketable knowledge and skills they acquire in their majors.

Graduates with a minor in music theatre have additional expertise that can help them as they pursue careers in arts administration, acting, performance or teaching.
