

Community Sports Management, Minor

PPCSMMIN

Think back to the community sports you enjoyed as a child. They were fun, and they helped you grow physically and socially. Combining your experiences with this minor can help you develop skills to further your career in a community-focused field and enhance your undergraduate degree at ASU.

Description

The community sports management minor focuses on developing skills that support recreational amateur sport programs within the community.

This minor provides the basics of community sport management and supplements a degree in a community-oriented profession.

Enrollment requirements

GPA Requirement: 2.00

Incompatible Majors: None

Other Enrollment Requirements: None

Current ASU undergraduate students may pursue a minor and have it recognized on their ASU transcript at graduation. Minor requirements appear on the degree audit once the minor is added. Certain major and minor combinations may be deemed inappropriate by the college or department of either the major program or the minor. Courses taken for the minor may not count toward both the major and the minor.

Career opportunities

Minor programs allow students to develop additional competencies that complement the marketable knowledge and skills they acquire in their majors.

Sport programs exist in a number of settings, including nonprofit organizations, public agencies and corporate programs. For students interested in a career in one of these settings, or for those who are simply interested in sport, this minor can provide additional relevant skills.

A minor in community sport management can help graduates as they pursue careers such as coaches and sports marketing managers.
