

Community Sports Management, Minor

PPCSMMIN

Do you dream of bringing the joy of community sport from your childhood back into communities? Recreation is instrumental for physical and social development, as well as social cohesion. Enrich your undergraduate studies and prepare to excel professionally in improving community well-being and quality of life.

Description

The minor program in community sports management equips students with essential skills for managing recreational amateur sports programs within their community. This program lays the foundation for community sport management and complements degrees in community-oriented professions, empowering students to make a positive impact.

Prerequisite courses may be needed in order to complete the requirements of this minor.

Enrollment requirements

GPA Requirement: 2.00

Incompatible Majors: None

Other Enrollment Requirements: None

Current ASU undergraduate students may pursue a minor and have it recognized on their ASU transcript at graduation. Minor requirements appear on the degree audit after the minor is added. Certain major and minor combinations may be deemed inappropriate by the college or department of either the major or the minor program. Courses taken for the minor may not count toward both the major and the minor.

Career opportunities

Minor programs enable students to develop additional competencies that complement the marketable knowledge and skills they acquire in their majors.

Sport programs exist in a number of settings, including nonprofit organizations, public agencies and corporate programs. For students interested in a career in one of these settings, or for those who are simply interested in sport, this minor can provide additional relevant skills.

Opportunities for graduates with this minor include coaching and sports marketing management.
