

Leadership, Ethics and Service, Certificate

PPLETSCERT

ASU is no longer accepting new students to this program. Interested students should consider the Leadership and Ethics certificate.

Are you passionate about becoming an admirable leader? In only five courses, you can explore the relationship between leadership and the capacity to assume responsibility for one's actions. You'll understand how to act with a sense of integrity while building confidence in your leadership skills.

Description

The leadership, ethics and service certificate program includes coursework with an emphasis on values, ethics, leadership and public service. In addition to in-class instruction, the program includes a service-learning component during the summer, as well as out-of-classroom activities.

Enrollment requirements

A student pursuing an undergraduate certificate must be enrolled as a degree-seeking student at ASU. Undergraduate certificates are not awarded prior to the award of an undergraduate degree. A student already holding an undergraduate degree may pursue an undergraduate certificate as a nondegree-seeking graduate student.

Program learning outcomes

Program learning outcomes identify what a student will learn or be able to do upon completion of their program. This program has the following program outcomes:

- Articulate the importance of public service to communities and individuals.
- Develop basic leadership skills.
- Articulate their own personal values and the role of ethics in the professional workplace.

Career opportunities

Certificate programs allow students to develop additional competencies that complement the marketable knowledge and skills they acquire in their majors.
